YOUR JOURNEY

Day 1 — GANGTOK TO TSOMGO NATHULA - NEW BABAMANDIR

Today we will visit Tsomgu, Nathula, Babamandir after departing from Gangtok. As we complete the breakfast we will leave for Tsomgu Lake, which is located at an elevation of 12400 feet and 15 meters deep. The chilled water in the lake drives down after the melting of snow. This lake is considered to be a sacred lake by the local people. In the ancient period, the future could be predicted by the Lamas after looking at the colour of the lake Over here you can experience the joy ride and the ropeway. Later that visit Babamandir located on the way to Nathula pass at a height of 15,000 ft. This Baba mandir carries a very heart touching story about an Indian soldier. Nathula pass is subject to permit system where you need to pay extra cost. Stay over night at Gangtok.

Day 2 — GANGTOK TO LACHUNG

Today we will be heading towards Lachung via Chungthang confluence - En-route Singhik View point, Naga Falls and Bhim Nala waterfall. Arrive Lachung by evening. Dinner & Overnight stay at Lachung.

TRAVEL TIPS

March–May: Rhododendrons in bloom and pleasant weather. October–December: Clear skies and excellent mountain views. December–February: Snowfall (road conditions may vary). June–September: Monsoon season; landslides can affect travel Carry a government-issued photo ID. Indian citizens need permits for North Sikkim (including Lachung), usually arranged by local tour operators. Foreign nationals have additional permit requirements. Book North Sikkim tours in advance, especially during peak seasons (March–May and October–December). Keep both digital and printed copies of your ID and travel bookings. Best time to visit March to May: Pleasant weather with blooming flowers. October to December: Clear mountain views and crisp weather. June to September: Heavy rains can cause landslides and road closures. January to February: Snow is possible around Lachung, but roads may occasionally close. Packing essentials Warm layers, even in summer (especially for Lachung). Waterproof jacket and sturdy shoes. Sunscreen, sunglasses, and lip balm (UV exposure is stronger at altitude). Power bank and flashlight. Basic medicines, including medication for motion sickness if you're prone to it. Lachung is at around 2,700 m (8,900 ft). Stay hydrated. Avoid alcohol on your first night at higher altitude. Eat light meals. If you experience severe headache, vomiting, or difficulty breathing, seek medical help immediately. Road travel Roads to Lachung are scenic but winding. Start early, as mountain travel often begins before sunrise. Keep snacks and water in the vehicle. Expect limited mobile connectivity in some stretches. Money Carry sufficient cash, as ATMs become scarce outside Gangtok. UPI works in many places in Gangtok but may be unreliable in remote areas due to poor network coverage. Mobile network Networks work well in Gangtok. Coverage becomes patchy in North Sikkim. Download offline maps before leaving Gangtok. Food Try local specialties such as: Momos Thukpa Phagshapa (for non-vegetarians) Gundruk soup Chhurpi (traditional yak cheese) Responsible travel Don't litter in the mountains. Carry back plastic waste where possible. Respect monastery etiquette—remove shoes where required and ask before photographing monks. Avoid picking alpine flowers or disturbing wildlife
