TRAVEL TIPS

Carry valid government photo ID proof at all times during the tour, especially for travel in Sikkim. Keep multiple passport-size photographs handy for permits required in North Sikkim and Tsomgo Lake areas. Pack warm clothing including jackets, gloves, woolens, thermals, caps, and comfortable shoes, as temperatures can drop significantly in Lachung and Tsomgo Lake. Carry essential medicines for cold, motion sickness, and high-altitude travel. Stay hydrated and avoid heavy physical activity immediately after reaching high-altitude destinations. Mobile network connectivity may be limited in North Sikkim regions like Lachung and Yumthang Valley. ATMs are limited in remote areas; carry sufficient cash for personal expenses. Weather in the mountains can change suddenly, so keep rain protection and extra layers handy. Start sightseeing early to enjoy clear mountain views and avoid traffic on hill roads. Respect local customs, monasteries, and eco-sensitive zones by avoiding littering and plastic waste. Follow all permit and travel regulations issued by local authorities in Sikkim. Try local Himalayan cuisine and Darjeeling tea for an authentic regional experience in Darjeeling. Keep your camera ready for stunning landscapes, waterfalls, monasteries, and Kanchenjunga viewpoints throughout the journey. MANDATORY DOCUMENTATION FOR INDIAN CITIZENS: - One recent passport-size photograph per traveler - Valid ID proof: Voter ID, Passport, or Driving License only - PAN cards and Aadhaar cards are not accepted as valid travel ID - For minors (under 18 years): Birth certificate is mandatory FOR FOREIGN NATIONALS: - Valid passport, visa, and four (4) passport-size photographs - Diplomatic passports or visas are not permitted for entry into Sikkim unless prior clearance is obtained from the Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) or the Ministry of External Affairs (MEA)
